Prospective Voters Serenaded at First National Center

Milbank Real Estate offers voter registration, player piano concert to downtowners

OKLAHOMA CITY- Milbank Real Estate, asset and property managers of downtown's historic First National Center will host a voter registration drive on Thursday, Oct. 9 in the building's Great Banking Hall. Voters will be serenaded with classical tunes from a Suzuki player piano as they register or re-register to vote in the November 4 elections.

"We encourage all of our tenants and downtown neighbors to be heard in the elections," said Emily D. Dobson, Senior Property Manager at First National Center. "Everyone should have a say in shaping Oklahoma's future and economic growth opportunities downtown."

The drive will run from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Milbank will provide voter registration forms in its offices from Oct. 6-10 for those unable to attend the Great Banking Hall event. The Downtown Tag Agency will mail completed registration forms at no cost for those who participate.
